State Grant and Scholarship Programs
2018 - 2019

Program	Type of Aid	How and When to Apply	Other Program Details	Enrollment Requirements	Amount and Lifetime Limits
The cost of attending college varies depending on the college selected, the number of credits enrolled, as well as other expenses such as room/board, books and supplies, transportation and other miscellaneous educational and living expenses. Financial aid programs, such as grants, scholarships and reciprocity programs exist to help students meet their cost of education. The North Dakota University System administers grants, scholarships and other incentive programs for students and graduates. What are some of the options? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ GRANTS: Financial aid, often based on financial need, that does not need to be repaid. State and federal grants are available. ➤ SCHOLARSHIPS: Money awarded to students based on academic or other achievements to help pay for education expenses. Scholarships generally do not have to be repaid. Remember to research for private as well as institutional scholarship opportunities. ➤ LOANS: Money taken out on loan to pay for education and related expenses. Student loans must be repaid with interest. ➤ WORK: Federal and institutional work programs can help students earn money to pay for college. ➤ LOAN FORGIVENESS: Programs that provide graduates with student loan reduction if they meet qualifying criteria following program completion.

Professional Student Exchange Program (PSEP)	Scholarship: does not have to be repaid; no service requirement	Apply by October 15 of the year preceding entry into the professional program of study for priority consideration. Application and information can be found on the NDUS website at http://www.ndus.edu/students/exchange-reciprocity-programs/wiche-professional-student-exchange-program-psep/ .	The Professional Student Exchange Program (PSEP) provides North Dakota resident students access to veterinary medicine, optometry and dentistry programs not offered in the state. Scholarships are dependent upon the contracts the state has with participating institutions. Awards are made based on student rankings. North Dakota has contracts through WICHE (veterinary medicine, dentistry and optometry; Kansas State (veterinary medicine); Iowa State (veterinary medicine); and the University of Minnesota (veterinary medicine and dentistry).	Recipients must maintain continual enrollment based on program requirements.	Based on institution and program.
Additional Information
North Dakota-Minnesota Reciprocity	Tuition reduction	Complete the application online prior to the end of the term requesting benefits for: http://www.ohe.state.mn.us/hesod/NDR reciprocity/apply1.cfm	The purpose of the North Dakota/Minnesota Reciprocity Program is to continue to improve postsecondary education opportunities for North Dakota and Minnesota residents and to achieve improved effectiveness and economy in meeting the postsecondary education needs to those residents through cooperative efforts by the two neighboring states. Currently, North Dakota students who attend Minnesota campuses pay the Minnesota resident rate.
Other Programs	Midwest Student Exchange Program	Offered by the Midwest Higher Education Commission, the Midwest Student Exchange Program (MSEP) enables students to enroll in out-of-state colleges and universities at no more than 150 percent of the institutions' resident tuition rate. Each participating institution determines which degree programs it will make available to students, the number of students it will admit and its admission requirements. http://www.mhec.org/
	Western Undergraduate Exchange	Through the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) Program, students in 10 participating states may enroll in designated two-year and four-year institutions and programs in other participating states at reduced tuition rates. WUE students pay up to 150 percent of regular in-state tuition at designated institutions. For more information about institutions participating in WUE, visit http://www.wiche.edu/wue .
	Western Regional Graduate Programs	The primary purpose of the Western Regional Graduate Program (WRGP) is to permit students from WICHE states to enroll in the more than 400 graduate programs offered by member states. Students who participate in WRGP pay resident tuition rates at public institutions. For more information about available WRGP programs, visit http://www.wiche.edu/wrgp .
Federal Programs	Federal Grants, Loans and Work Study	Complete the FAFSA annually at fafsa.gov to apply for grants, loans and work-study. Students should contact the financial aid office at their college with questions.	https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/ https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/sites/default/files/2018-19-do-you-need-money.pdf https://fafsa.gov/
